

Gail Taybron

Gail Taybron is a gifted woman of God who, together with her husband Pastor Joe Taybron, leads Legacy Community Church, a diverse Assembly of God congregation in Placer County. Gail is about reaching the unchurched through evangelism, discipleship, and incorporation into viable passionate roles within the church community. She is also called to build and edify the Kingdom through Women's Ministry. Her goal is to enable women to flourish in every aspect of their lives by encouraging them to tap into their God given gifts, talents and abilities through mentorship.

Gail is a talented administrator who has developed, directed, and coordinated many ministries and ministry teams throughout the years. These teams helped build relationships with marginalized people and introduced the unchurched to the love of Christ.

Gail earned a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Biblical Studies from Patten University and received her Master of Arts Degree in Organizational Management from the University of Phoenix. In addition to ministry, she works as an Executive Account Manager, and in her spare time she enjoys reading, outings with friends and risky outdoor activities. She and her husband were married in 1991 and currently reside in Roseville, California.
